

Family Track

Films in this track will be rated G or PG. May contain mild action and peril, or mild crude humor, but will be generally acceptable for viewers of all ages, as guided by parents.

All films are on Fridays at 7:00 p.m.

September 2

freespirited Maria brings music, warmth, and love to a regimented Austrian household at the brink of WW II

November 4

a beautiful barnyard fable of finding one's place and learning to live and work in harmony

February 3

a lovely live-action retelling of the familiar tale of virtue rewarded

May 5

a touching animated musical, telling Victory Hugo's story of kindheartedness overcoming cruelty

PG-Plus Track

Films in this track will be rated PG, PG-13, or (in rare cases warranted by legitimate artistic content), R. Parental discretion is advised, but all films will be on inspirational themes.

All films are on Fridays at 7:00 p.m.

October 7

a swashbuckling historical drama set on the high seas of the Napoleonic wars

December 2

a sweeping musical epic in which faith, grace, and redemption outlast cruel legalism

March 3

a courageous captain endures a harrowing ordeal of kidnapping by Somali pirates in 2009

June 2

Chilean miners struggle to survive 69 days trapped underground in 2010.

Parish Track

While First Friday movies will largely remain mainstream films to encourage welcoming friends and neighbors of any (or no) religious affiliation, we are pleased to include the following track for Parishioners, other Catholics, and interested viewers of any other background. Most will follow 5:30 p.m. Vigil Masses & suppers.

Saturday, December 31

A beautiful biography of the great Pope (and now, Saint) who helped shape the history of the 20th century

Good Friday, April 14

an annual Parish tradition: Mel Gibson's epic portrayal of the last earthly days of Jesus of Nazareth

Friday, June 16

Peaceful Catholic monks stand their ground to serve others in the face of growing radical Muslim hostility in Algeria

Monday, August 14

*the Boston Globe breaks the story of sexual abuse and cover-up in the Catholic Church. Pre-screening lecture by Fr. Eric Bergman, Pastor

The Full Season

Fri, Sept 2	The Sound of Music
Fri, Oct 7	Master and Commander
Fri, Nov 4	Babe
Fri, Dec 2	Les Misérables
Sat, Dec 31	Pope John Paul II
No January Movie
Fri, Feb 3	Cinderella (2015)
Fri, Mar 3	Captain Phillips
Fri, Apr 14	The Passion of the Christ
Fri, May 5	Hunchback of Notre Dame
Fri, June 2	The 33
Fri, June 16	Of Gods and Men
Mon, Aug 14	Spotlight*

\(to be preceded by a pre-screening lecture by Fr. Eric Bergman)*

More Information

St. Thomas More Catholic Parish is located at St. Joseph Church, at the corner of North Main Avenue and Theodore Street in North Scranton (1625 North Main).

The Parish Hall is the lower level underneath the main church. Enter by the exterior door at the North Main Avenue end of the building, on the side closest to the St. Joseph School building.

The main parking lot is on the far side of the school building from the church.

phone: 570-343-0634
email: contact@stmscranton.org
website: www.stmscranton.org
mailing address: 116 Theodore Street

St. Thomas More Parish makes every effort to abide by Copyright law. The Parish has secured a CVLI license (Christian Video Licensing International) allowing the presentation of most major motion pictures.

FREE Movie Nights!

at St. Thomas More Parish

Big Screen & Sound!

Major Hollywood films for families and individuals of all ages & walks of life

2016-2017 Season

First Fridays of the month, 7 p.m.
Parish Hall, St. Joseph Church
North Main Avenue at Theodore Street